

at the Ojai Music Festival
June 8-10, 2007

The Ojai Festival is an unbroken tradition where music is boundless and dares you to open yourself to adventure and surprise. It's an annual retreat where artists and audiences form an intimate bond in the enchanting Ojai Valley. It's a one of a kind experience loaded with concerts, conversations, and contrasts.

Please join the Contemporary Collectors for an exciting 3 days of contemporary music and art at Ojai's 61st Music Festival starting on Friday, June 8 and ending on Sunday, June 10, 2007. We will meet at the beautiful Ojai Valley Inn, our home for two nights, at 1 o'clock on Friday, and tour wonderful artists' studios and collections before a dinner buffet in the home of collectors Maudette and Frank Finck. Following dinner we will attend the festival for an exciting evening of contemporary music. Saturday will be filled with music and art ending with a cocktail reception in the home and garden of Barbara & Tony Hirsch to view their art collection. This evening is free to visit the festival or dine out. Sunday will again be a day of music and art with the tour ending at 3 o'clock following lunch at Suzanne's, the local's favorite Ojai restaurant. The trip has been planned by the Paulsons and the Evarts! Be enveloped by the magic of Ojai - join us, it will surprise you.

Cost: $800

Includes 2 nights, including breakfasts, at the Ojai Valley Inn, 3 music concerts, 2 lunches and one dinner, and chartered bus transportation in Ojai.

The trip is limited to twenty people. <http://www.ojaifestival.org>
