Holiday Salon

mysteries of the art auction world

Sunday, December 14, 2008, 4-6PM

With guest speaker

CECILIA DAN

Specialist in Art Advisory, Appraisal Services, and Collections Management.

Cecilia is Los Angeles art royalty: the daughter of the legendary sixties art dealer -- the first Eugenia Butler, and sister of the late conceptual artist Eugenia Butler. She is active as a Consultant/Specialist in Modern and Contemporary Art with Bonhams & Butterfields world-wide, a graduate of the Appraisal Studies Program at UCI, holds an MBA from Claremont Graduate School in Arts and Cultural Management, is a past chair of the Board of Trustees of the Santa Monica Museum of Art and is a member of the board of MAK, Center for Art and Architecture, Los Angeles. Cecilia will take us behind the scenes and unravel all of the mysteries of the art auction world.
