

the Huntington

Saturday, November 15th

A day behind the scenes at the Huntington Library, Art Collections and Botanical Gardens in San Marino, including a private tour of the newly restored mansion with John Murdoch, The Hannah and Russell Kully Director of The Art Collections; a walk through the splendid Chinese garden, which opened in January; a tour of the much-anticipated Greene and Greene architecture and design exhibition with Ted Bosley, James N. Gamble Director of the Gamble House; a viewing of treasures in the print room with Assistant Curator of American Art Kevin Murphy; private luncheon in Banta Hall/the Botanical Building... and more, all through the generosity of Huntington Overseer Maurice Katz.

$80 per person. Bus leaves from Macys - Cocos at 8:15am

Checks should be sent to Jane Fowler, 122 Via Orvieto
Newport Beach, CA 92663

This trip is strictly limited to 24 members. Checks should be sent ASAP. You will be notified whether you are on the trip or on the waiting list. If you find you cannot attend, call Jane at 675-8987. Your place MUST go to the next person on the waiting list, and your money will be refunded if there is a waiting list.

Day of the trip phone number: 949-547-4015